The Gay Matinee Girl.

The following is taken from the Montpelier, N. H., Times of October 3rd.

"The Gay Matinee Girl Co. appeared at the opera house last evening and their performance was greeted by a very enthusiastic audience. If laughter and applause are any criterion to go by, the Gay Matinee Girl is without a doubt the best musical comedy that has appeared in this theatre. Messrs. Hanley and Flynn are two clever fun makers and kept the audience in roars of laughter. The polite vaudeville acts introduced in the play are of the highest order.

"The musical numbers are many. Don C. Kensington sang My Sombrero, with spirit and telling effect, assisted by choruses of six pretty girls in charming Mexican costume. Among the numbers was Cosy Corner, by Misses Ida Bergen and Mattie Vickers, and these two pretty singers caught the audience by their clever work from the start. In short, the show was good and should they arrange a return date will be sure to play to a packed house."

At the Barre opera house Tuesday, Nov. 28.
